From: Financial Times Briefing <FT@emailbriefings.ft.com>
To: ehbarak1@gmail.com
CC:
Date: Thu, 9/26/2013 3:29:19 PM
Subject: US Morning Headlines: JPMorgan in $11bnsettlement talks, US could run out...

To view this email as a webpage, click here

Thursday September 26 2013

US HOMEPAGE

JPMorgan in $11bn settlement talks

Bank is resisting any sweeping admission of guilt, which could jeopardise its defence against private litigation over the mortgage securities issues

US could run out of funds by October 17

BlackBerry shares fall on Fairfax bid doubts

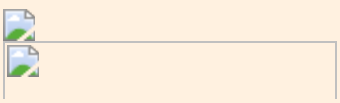
Companies rush to sell long-term debt

India urged to liberalise bond markets

VIDEO

UK utilities face price freeze

Lex's Rob Armstrong and Vincent Boland on the fight Ed Miliband has picked with the UK's electricity utility companies, which see a price freeze as a threat to capital investment



MARKETS

Tokyo stocks jump on talk of tax cut

Shanghai drops sharply as traders pare positions ahead of the Golden Week holiday, but Europe is becalmed as US fiscal concerns weigh

US mall owner leads euro bond deals rush

China banks face daunting money squeeze

William Hill and Ladbrokes lead UK lower

Fed policy was not leaked early, says study

WORLD NEWS

Kerry and Zarif to hold talks at UN

Meeting in New York to be highest level since 1979 and opens the way for fresh round of negotiations between Iran and the US over nuclear programme

NY mayoral frontrunner takes on Wall St

Shanghai gambles on new free trade zone

US business worries over pace of TPP deal

Ellison team storms to America's Cup victory

US NEWS

US lawmakers pressure CFTC over new rules

The CFTC has been criticised by House Republicans for overreaching in its rule making, just as legislation authorising the agency expires at the end of September

America's Cup promises thrilling finale

Cruz eggs and ham leave bitter aftertaste

Corporate America's odd silence on guns

US & CANADIAN COMPANIES

JPMorgan: reserve conundrum

One key piece of information is missing: the total amount of existing litigation reserves, but to release this number shouts what one is willing to pay

Lixil of Japan pays €3bn for Grohe

Carmakers dominate list of top innovators

Twitter launches alerts to boost usage

Alibaba abandons $60bn HK listing

Manage email

Forward this email

Feedback

Manage portfolio

Subscribe to the FT

Follow the FT

Unsubscribe | My Account | RSS | Privacy Policy | About Us | Help

© THE FINANCIAL TIMES LTD 2013

You have received this email because you have signed up from the NBE preference page.

This email was sent by a company owned by Pearson plc, registered office at 80 Strand, London WC2R 0RL.

Registered in England and Wales with company number 53723.